The Spyderco Forum is available for open discussion and the free exchange of opinions and ideas relating to Spyderco products, philosophies and related topics. Postings are saved and can be viewed until deleted. The postings are not edited for content, style or factual errors.

Although the administrators and moderators of Spyderco Forums will attempt to keep all objectionable messages off this forum, it is impossible for us to review all messages. All messages express the views of the author, and Spyderco will not be held responsible for the content of any message.

Like the community you live in, the Spyderco Forum works best when everyone follows basic standards of conduct. Your privilege to use and contribute to discussions depends on your compliance with the following guidelines. The Spyderco Forum Administrators and Moderators may revoke your registration privileges and/or take any other appropriate measures to enforce these guidelines if violations are brought to our attention.
